Do you have an interest in TMS? We are here to support your passion. Willing to support your professional growth in the direction you want to go. Is your passion substance use or prenatal? Build your practice the way you want it to look.

We are dedicated to providing comprehensive, integrated mental health services that are evidence-based, patient-centered, and accountable. Practicing integrative medicine focuses on healing those we care for and uses EBP. We also incorporate functional medicine to address the imbalances resulting from illness, striving to promote optimal health, which is the foundation of nursing.

We aim to work closely with other care providers and the person's social network to improve access, quality, outcome, and value for our behavioral health care services. Our goal is remission, getting people to live their most authentic lives.
